

Fourth Mental Health Promotion Hui Aotearoa

7- 8 August 2008, Orongomai Marae, Upper Hutt

Theme: "Te Pae Mahutonga – A Framework for Wellness"

Nau mai, haere mai

Are you passionate about improving the mental health of individuals, whanau, families and communities? Are you interested in developing or refining your mental health promotion strategies? If so come and join us!

The Mental Health Foundation in partnership with Regional Public Health, Vakaola Pacific Community Health and Te Roopu Pookai Tāniwhaniwha invite you to be a part of this exciting national mental health promotion Hui.

Our conference theme is Te Pae Mahutonga (Southern Cross Star Constellation) which brings together elements of modern health promotion.

Featuring: John Raeburn, Amohia Bolton, Fuimaono Karl Puloto Endemann, Janet Fanslow, Ruth DeSouza, David Liu and Nic Mason*.

The Hui aims to support and strengthen mental health promotion and to identify and develop linkages across sectors through evidence, information sharing and networking. We are committed to the overall goal for Māori health being 'whanau ora' and seek to foster, strengthen and support Maori, Pacific and tangata whaiora leadership across the mental health promotion spectrum and beyond.

Costs*: Early Bird registrations close on 30 June 2008. See our registration form for further details.

Registration forms and a draft programme can be downloaded from www.mentalhealth.org.nz or requested after 6 June 2008.

For further information please visit the Mental Health Foundation website

www.mentalhealth.org.nz

Or contact our Organiser
Debra Gill
(027) 636 1895

Or contact
Cinnamon Whitlock
cinnamon@mentalhealth.org.nz
(09) 300 7012

Or contact
Freedom Preston-Clark
freedom@mentalhealth.org.nz
(03) 353 6988

*We are still finalising arrangements with other speakers

*Cost includes morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea. Accommodation is not included.